

The South African Navy's frigate, SAS VRYSTAAT, approaching Marion Island during a recent cruise, carrying stores and relief personnel for the Weather Bureau's station on the island. On several occasions this ship had scientists on board, carrying out oceanographical work in connection with the I.G.Y. SAS NATAL, was specially fitted with instruments for the same purpose. — (Photograph: J. C. Stergianos.)

"Commando" July 1958