

Telegrams from the S.A. Embassy, Washington, on the subject of basic objectives to be sought in a common Antarctic policy, March 1958.

Newspaper clippings:

“Antártida”, El Mercurio, 13.3.58 + “Antarctica is a continent: Proof obtained on crossing”, London Times, 4.3.58 + “New Zealanders’ big part in a Commonwealth venture: Triumph over early setbacks”, London Times, 3.3.58 + “Antarctica”, Manchester Guardian, 22.2.58 + “Staying on in Antarctic: N. Zealand decision to keep base”, Manchester Guardian, 22.2.58 + “Gold found in Antarctica”, Manchester Guardian, 24.2.58 + “Antarctic plan has setback”, Rand Daily Mail, 24.2.58 + “Antártida”, El Mercurio, 22.2.58 + “Rival claims in Antarctica: Need for world authority: British initiative”, The Times, 12.2.58 + “British to propose Antarctic pact: Rule by international body: No arms bases”, Daily Telegraph, 12.2.58 + “Argentine view on Antarctic: Control inadmissible”, The Times, 13.2.58 + “International control of Antarctica: N.Z. support for idea”, London Times, 19.2.58 + “World regime for Antarctic urged by N.Z. premier”, The Pretoria News, 29.1.58 + “U.N. control asked for the Antarctic”, New York Times, 12.1.58 + “Scientists of 10 nations now in the Antarctic: New Zealand seek a ‘Shangri-La’”, London Times, 2.1.58 + “Russians extend Antarctic study: Icebreaker Ob to explore Palmer Peninsula, going into unclaimed area”, New York Times, 21.12.57 + “Flag planted, but who owns the Antarctic”, The Washington Post and Times Herald, 27.11.57.

Working notes on Antarctica.

Extract from a news bulletin published by the Press Section of the New Zealand Government Office in London entitled “Mr Nash explains Antarctic Plan to Western Ministers”, 13.3.58.

Correspondences in connection with a discussion between Mr de Villiers and Mr Bass of the Commonwealth Relations Office and a discussion between Messrs M.I. Botha, A.G. Dunn and W.B. Campbell of the American Embassy, regarding Antarctic policy.

Telegrams re. Polish application for membership to SCAR.

Letter from the Counsellor: S.A. Embassy, Washington entitled “International Geophysical Year: Antarctica”, 27.2.58.

Letters from die Sekretaris van Buitelandse Sake entitled: “Suidpoolgebied”, 22.2.58; “Russiese Landing op Zavodovsky-eiland in Suid-Snadwich-groep” (Russians landing on Zavodovsky Island), 11.2.58. With correspondence regarding.

Letters from the Minister entitled: “Antarctica: The South Sandwich Islands”, 30.1.58;

“Argentine and Chilean Posts in the Falkland Islands Dependencies”, 6.2.58.

Text of Press Release, prepared by the Dept. of Ext. Affairs, for publication on 5.2.58.

Extract from The Economist entitled “Fire and Ice”, 11.1.58.