8:00 A.M. Breakfast on RSA.

8:15 Stayed on board all morning - I sincerely hope we sail today - this waiting is infuriating.

11:30. Finished loading RSA eventually, all sorts of crap loaded: cement, telephone poles, turbines, wood: for erection of hydro-electric plant in November when RSA is bringing chopper down.

Lunch on RSA. Met Capt. Funk - we're nick named Tim "Schickel-Gruber".

Stored my mom + Mary to say adieu for last time.

Buttons blokes came on board to do their thing.

4:00 Eventually RSA slips her mooring and wise off!!! Didn't use tug.

Sea like a mill-pond; punny clear skies - RSA hardly rolling at all!!!

5:30. Supper time once again.

Everyone excited that we are at last on our way.

8:30pm. Passed Cape Agulhas, 41 nautical miles from Cape Town.

12:00: Went to sleep: first nite at sea: groovy!
