

Falkland Islands
Dependencies Survey,
4 Millbank,
London, S.W.1.

13th May, 1959.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have been informed by the Secretary of the Survey that, as from 1st July 1959, the rate for telegrams between Stanley and the Bases will be twopence per word. This means that the charges for messages sent by the 'Lettergram' method will now be doubled i.e. 2d. per word.

Yours sincerely,

(Miss B.M. Wells).

To: All relatives of FIDS personnel
at Bases.
