

Evening Post of the

WEEKEND MAGAZINE, SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1963

 An Eastern Cape man recently visited COUGH Gough Island in the R.S.A., a supply ship commanded by his son, Captain K. T. McNish. He regards it as one of the outstanding experiences in his eventful life, during which a lovely he has been a soldier, diamond prospector, hunter, farmer and harbour official. The 21-day trip to Gough included nine spent at the island, island of death es steer, rugged cliffs near the eg beach on Gough Island with Church Resk in the

PINICE PHILE SAID IN 1937. "IF EVIEW MAN HAS TO FACE HIS EVEREST SOME TIME IN NEIL STOROGY SECOMMEND AND TO GET HIS GOUGH SIAND IN REST. THERE IS NO BETTER PREPARATION."

NOW THAT HAVE BEEN TO THIS SILE OF HIS SOUTH ATLANTIC, LEG WITH HIM. IT IS A WONDERFUL PLACE WHICH CANNOT ADDICATELY BE OFFICE WITH HIM. IT IS A WONDERFUL PLACE WHICH CANNOT ADDICATELY BE OFFICENCY OFFICE AND MINISTER BE LEFT UNSAID.

Dangerous

J. T. McNISH

No warning

Eastern Cape man describes his visit

HAZARDOUS LANDING

Fishing

Problem

IT'S SENSIBLE TO SWOP SOMETHING YOU NO LONGER

NEED-SO MORE AND MORE PEOPLE WATCH THE POST'S SWOP COLUMN DAILY

Thick kelp

Disappears

Waterfalls

